Foreign Language Level 6 (Up to 6 Courses)

Completion of the sixth quarter (Intermediate Level) of any modern foreign language. The language requirement can also be fulfilled in part or in total via a placement exam given through the appropriate language department.

Admission to the Major: UCLA students must apply to the Global Studies major. The application period is the end of the Fall Quarter of the Junior Year. By the end of that term, students must have earned a minimum grade of a 'B' in Glbl St 1; completed all preparation courses* with a minimum UC GPA in these courses of 3.25; shown that they plan to continue with the required course sequence for the major by enrolling in Glbl St 100A or B (Winter) and registering for a Glbl St 110A/110B travel study program (Summer); submitted an application, and be formally accepted into the major.

Admission to the Global Studies major is on a competitive basis, using the preparation requirements as a minimum standard for consideration. Note that meeting minimum qualifications does not guarantee admission to the Global Studies major.

*Completion of level 3 of the foreign language is acceptable when applying for the major. Level 6 of the foreign language is required to complete all preparation requirements, but can be done once accepted to the major. The minimum prep GPA of 3.25 will still need to be met with the inclusion of this course.
