Starting July 1st, the Center for Korean Studies has entered a new academic year, 2015-2016. With this new beginning, we would like to welcome our new Co-Director for the Center, Professor Namhee Lee. She is a professor of modern Korean history in the Department of Asian Languages & Cultures. Professor Lee will be serving alongside Professor John Duncan as the Co-Director for the Center starting 2015-2016 academic year.

The Center has recently gone through some IT upgrades. Along with the new website and the new logo, we have implemented a brand new design for our Newsletter. You will now be receiving the Center Newsletter through MailChimp. This new Newsletter platform offers modern design that is better compatible with various email systems. Welcome to the new Newsletter, and enjoy!

CKS Announcements

New CKS Logo
The Center has adopted a new logo! The logo represents South Korea’s

Job Announcement
CSU Dominguez Hills is hiring part-time instructors for Fall 2015. If interested, please

CKS Event - 7/17/15
Korean Food Festival
11:30am-3:30pm
Royce Hall 362 & Bruin
National Treasure #1, Sungnyemun (also known as Namdaemun). Email Professor Jung Sun Park. Classes begin on August 24th.

Resources
Korea Focus
A monthly webzine, featuring commentaries and essays on Korean politics, economy, society and culture, as well as relevant international issues.

Resources
Online Archive Korean Christianity
Offering primary sources of Korean Christianity, and introducing contemporary scholarship on the history of Korean Christianity.

Plaza
Dr. Jennifer Jung-Kim will present a lecture on "Changing Tastes in Korean Food," followed by Korean food festival.

Resources
Korea Briefing
Providing background and context on sociopolitical issues currently facing the Korean peninsula.

Resources
MinorityPostdoc.org
Diversity postdoctoral fellowships and opportunities.

Support Us
Donate to CKS
Help us continue our excellence in scholarship and research by donating today!