GLOBAL STUDIES MAJOR SENIOR THESIS
INDIVIDUAL RESEARCH IN GLOBALIZATION
Faculty Advisor Responsibilities

Scope of Research topic:

Important: Senior thesis topic is of the student's choosing, but should clearly relate to one or more of the core thematic pillars of globalization: transnational culture, global governance, and international markets. Students are asked to provide potential faculty advisors, who can come from any department at UCLA, with a research proposal which should include sufficient detail so that a determination of the scope and appropriateness of the research topic can be made.

Expectations of Faculty Advisors:

• Faculty advisors must be in residence for the two terms that the thesis will be undertaken.
• Glbl St 199A & Glbl St 199B are not designed for students acting as research assistants on faculty projects. These courses are to give credit for independent research only.
• It is highly encouraged that advisors meet weekly with the student during the Winter and Spring terms in order to give frequent feedback on progress towards the senior thesis by reviewing preliminary drafts and offer comments that will guide subsequent revisions.
• Unless otherwise indicated by the faculty advisor, students are asked to submit their final thesis by Friday of the 10th week of Spring Quarter. Final grade for Glbl St 199B (6 units total from Glbl St 199A & 199B combined) are based on the quality of the completed thesis.

Your signature below indicates that you agree to abide by the faculty advisor responsibilities, outlined above. Note that your signature will also be required on the Glbl St 199A (Winter) and Glbl St 199B (Spring) Contracts.
